

ARMCHAIR, CHARACTERS & MIRRORS

20th Century Avant-Garde Cabinet

Leandro Navarro Art Gallery presents the exhibition titled Armchair, Characters, and Mirrors, conceived as a sort of avant-garde cabinet in which a selection of artworks by international artists of the beginning of the 20th century with others from the best Spanish Informalism.

In this exhibition, a series of “characters” presented by Jean Dubuffet (Site aleatoire avec trois personnages), María Blanchard (Fillete assise dans la salle aux bancs), Óscar Domínguez (Taureau-Sphinx), Salvador Dalí (with his intriguing sculpture Cybele), Pablo Gargallo (Jeune homme à la marguerite), Joan Miró and his “Têtes” [Heads] or Benjamín Palencia with his playful painted stone and clay figures establish a dialogue with “objects” and even pieces of “furniture” that we could imagine in the attic of a bohemian artist. The latter is the case of artworks such as two still lifes by Juan Gris, the Armchair by Antoni Tàpies, and the Mirrors by Manuel Rivera.
